PLAYING DUETS

When playing duets balance of tone and volume, as well as absolute precision of playing, becomes of paramount importance. The melody, in this case the 1st. accordion, must be prominent – but not unduly so, since the 2nd. accordion also has much to say that will enhance the beauty of the piece.

Use of the fingers shown will facilitate the performance of the piece considerably, and the bellows-markings will phrase it correctly for you.

So – off you go, and experience the greater pleasure of playing with others !

Please include the title of this work, and the names of the arranger and publisher, on the Performing Rights Society's return whenever it is publicly performed.
